

Sameer S

OPERATIONS MANAGER

Detailed operations manager who focuses on planned pre-, production, post-production, marketing, and distribution support for projects. Creating plans, strategies, and new connections including investment, film funding, and engagement with production. I have experience for more than 20 years in Operational Management in the industry.

At the forefront of 24 CRAFTS LLC, my role as Head of Investor Relations blends strategic communication skills with a steadfast commitment to fostering robust funding and investment partnerships. With an extensive background in project leadership, my expertise lies in negotiating and managing high-profile deals in the entertainment industry.

My approach is anchored in a deep understanding of investor dynamics and an adeptness in liaising with media houses on a global scale. The collaborative efforts led by our teams have been instrumental in securing and managing international projects, underpinning our organization's vision for growth and excellence in the competitive entertainment landscape.
